INDIAN SUMMER

... lies just around the next change of dress by nature, and Chief Fulton Battise, whom many local and area residents met at Museum Day, and all his people say emphatically that the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Reservation near Livingston, Texas presents the prettiest sights ever in this serenely beautiful twilight part of the year.

Having been born and raised not more than a whoop and a holler and a stone's throw from that neck of the woods in East Texas, I agree with them.

So as they say on the tellie, "Do yourself a favor," visit the Indians near Livingston. I bet if you try it you'll like it.

TOURISM

... has been a subject in several of my weekly rantings. But ... I say it's worth talking about. Did you notice where some 2,800,000 persons visited the State of Texas last year? And take a look at the money they spent--$474,000,000, which means of course, the State benefited more than $22,000,000 in taxes from these people.

I wonder how much of it rang cash registers in Medina County?

RURAL DEVELOPMENT

... has received a greater commitment from the Federal government. For example, funds earmarked for housing in rural areas amount to $2.2 billion this year, four times the 1969 level; sewer and water programs are allocated $342 million this year, nearly twice the 1969 level. Total funds devoted to rural development efforts by the Department of Agriculture will mount to $3.5 billion this year--four times the level in 1961 and twice as much as in 1969.

So what does this mean? Just more Federal money being spent to keep politicians in office?

Not on your last inflated dollar, is my opinion. We know the great exodus from rural areas to the cities has brought on millions of problems. A move back to rural areas can help alleviate these problems of overcrowding, traffic, crime, pollution, etc.

However, the move to the country must be accompanied by jobs and decent places to live. Just to move hundreds of thousands of people into the rural areas without hopes of jobs would be committing suicide by transferring all the city problems to the rural areas.

But orderly development in the rural areas can be accomplished by increasing industrial development. And here the State and Federal governments can give much help. This can be given in good training programs, grants for sewer improvements and other projects needed to build cities.

However, cities must be ready for development. Take Hondo for example: We have a U.S. Air Force flight training program scheduled to begin here in June 1973. And we are a long way from being able to provide the extra housing which will be needed to keep the people living in this area. (Their impact on local economy will be practically nil if they live in San Antonio.)

Perhaps our builders will rectify this problem before the time arrives, although many circumstances always arise to prevent the building from catching up with the need.

If the U.S. Bonded Padding Co. does build then we have an additional load placed on our already overloaded housing supply. We'll also be faced with the need of building a new and larger sewage treatment facility and expanding our already overloaded electrical system.

Yet, we can overcome these problems if we set our minds to the task of doing so. Up in Tulia, Texas local leaders set out to combat decaying businesses, blighted housing. As a result of their efforts, the community has 386 new low-cost homes and jobs and incomes are up because of the construction work.

Rural development is an idea whose time has come--mostly because increasing numbers of people are moving to the country. * Please turn to Page 2

Star performers highlight Fiesta

Excitement spiced with the romantic flavor of Mexico is promised those who attend the Fiesta Entre Amigos Saturday evening celebrating Hondo's observance of Diez y Seis.

A gala night filled with a variety of entertainment will mark this event celebrating Mexico's Independence from Spain.

Jose Ramos of the Mexican Consulate in San Antonio will be the keynote speaker in an evening that will also feature food booths, other concessions, crowning of the new Queen, and famed entertainers from the Fiesta Noche del Rio in San Antonio as well as local performers.

Rosita Fernandez, San Antonio's First Lady of Song and an internationally known star, will perform the honor of crowning the new Queen, who will be chosen from three candidates, Lupita Rodriguez, Delia Garcia and Rose Marie Contreras.

Magda and Roberto and their dancers, also stars in the famous San Antonio event, will present several regional Mexican dances.

They will be joined by El Conjunto Mexicano, a group composed of students and ex-students of San Antonio College and other people interested in the folklore and dances of Mexico. Directed by Manuel Gomez and Miss Magdalena Garcia, the group has performed before * Please Turn To Page 3

Padding company sets early 1973 as production time

Can the U. S. Bonded Padding Company be in production by early 1973?

"It's highly possible," says Louis Terraza of San Antonio, one of the principals involved in getting the Hondo-based firm in operation.

"We'll spend three days this week going over mechanical, electrical and structural engineering plans," Terraza told the Anvil Herald publisher in a Monday afternoon interview.

"Then we submit them to the appropriate governmental agency for review and we hope approval," he said. "Once they are submitted we expect to receive approval in four to six weeks if everything goes according to plans," he said.

"Therefore, we hope to break ground sometime in late October, and if this can happen on schedule we could just possibly be in production early in 1973," Terraza explained.

Terraza was told that local residents are extremely anxious for the plant to begin operation because of the employment it will provide and the economical impact it will have on the community.

"Tell them for us, please," he said, "that no one is more interested in getting into production than we are."

"We have invested a lot of money, our own, mind you, because as the Anvil Herald printed last week the government loan can not be closed out until the job is completed. Therefore, we stand to lose a great deal unless we complete the job and begin producing carpet padding."

Gerald Alexander, who moved from the Dallas area to Hondo, is the president of the U. S. Bonded Padding Co.

Class of '74 to meet Sunday

Class of '74 will have a meeting at 7:30 Sunday evening at the Pub to make rules and elect officers for a senior club. Entrance fee will be $5.

Horse show to be family action event

One of the largest Open Horse Shows ever to be held in this part of South Texas is slated for the Hondo Rodeo Arena beginning at 6 p. m. Saturday.

Jim Reed Productions will produce the big show, featuring halter and performance classes for both young and adults. The event is being held with full approval and cooperation of the Medina County Rodeo Association.

"The Rodeo Association," says President Elmo Pope, "will have the drinks and other concessions, while the producer gets the gate admissions and entry fees."

Producer Jim Reed feels the show will draw one of the largest entry list of any show in the area. "I expect some 100-125 horses from San Antonio alone," he said.

A firm supporter of the Medina County Rodeo Association, Reed not only holds a membership card in the organization, but also says that if he clears over $300 on the Saturday night event he will "make a generous contribution to the Association."

He also has promised a hat to the Association member who signs up the most members by showtime Saturday night. This offer was made several months ago at a local meeting.

"We are proud that Reed is producing this show in cooperation with Jim Benson of Seguin," Pope said. "It is intended as a family event and we invite all to bundle up their youngsters and come out Saturday night."

Halter classes go through the recognized ages of horses, and the riding events include everything from flag exchange to pole bending to barrel racing for youngsters and older riders.

Grand prize will be a fine roping saddle given by Jim Reed's The Saddle Shop in San Antonio. He also said that prizes in each event will include: a pad, a blanket, hair brush, cowboy brush, water curry brush and a hoof pick.

Salary increases highlight County budget figures

Salary increases averaging 11.3 percent have been voted for Medina County officials and workers in 1973, accounting for most of the $40,250.76 increase in the 1973 budget.

Commissioners Court Monday approved a $1,008,157.90 budget for the year beginning January 1, 1973. This shows the above increase over the estimated 1972 budget of $987,907.14.

Salary increases will be made in increments of 5.5 percent as of October 1, 1972 and the remaining 5.8 percent as of January 1973.

These increases approved for elected officials, which must be approved at a public hearing set for October 5, include, (an increase from $7,907), County Judge, to $10,500; County Attorney, to $10,500; Treasurer, to $9,500; County Clerk, to $9,500; District Clerk, to $9,500; Tax Assessor-Collector, to $9,500; County Sheriff, from $8,112 to $10,000; Justices-of-the-Peace, from an aggregate total of $17,031 to $20,226 (this includes all JP's in county).

Salary increases also went to deputies and other workers in all offices. Commissioners voted to increase the county's portion of the County Agent's salary to $3,300 and the Home Demonstration Agent's to $2,174. They also voted to add $2,000 for an assistant County Agent to help out Glenn Bragg.

This was one of two new positions authorized by the Commissioners in the 1973 budget. Newly elected County Attorney Allen Lee, who will have an office in the Courthouse, has been authorized a secretary at an annual salary of $4,620.

In approving the million dollar plus budget, Commissioners set the tax rate at the

RC&D promises great benefits

"The Resources Conservation and Development program is a local project with federal help rather than a federal project with local help."

This was the description of RC&D given members of the Regional Steering Committee last Thursday (August 31) when they met in San Antonio to organize and begin preparations for submitting an application to Congress for funding for the area program.

Bob Hovel, Assistant State Conservationist from Temple, gave this description on RC&D which he says proposes a structure "that is a workable process to get things done."

"Through this project," Hovel said, "we can tackle and solve such problems as road erosion; flood prevention; water based multiple recreation projects; farm irrigation, including pumping systems, gates, etc.; public water based fish and wildlife projects dealing primarily with benefits to habitation; land drainage, both surface and sub-surface; and soil and water related agricultural pollution."

Hovel said these were hard core RC&D measures, but added "the scope certainly is not limited to these."

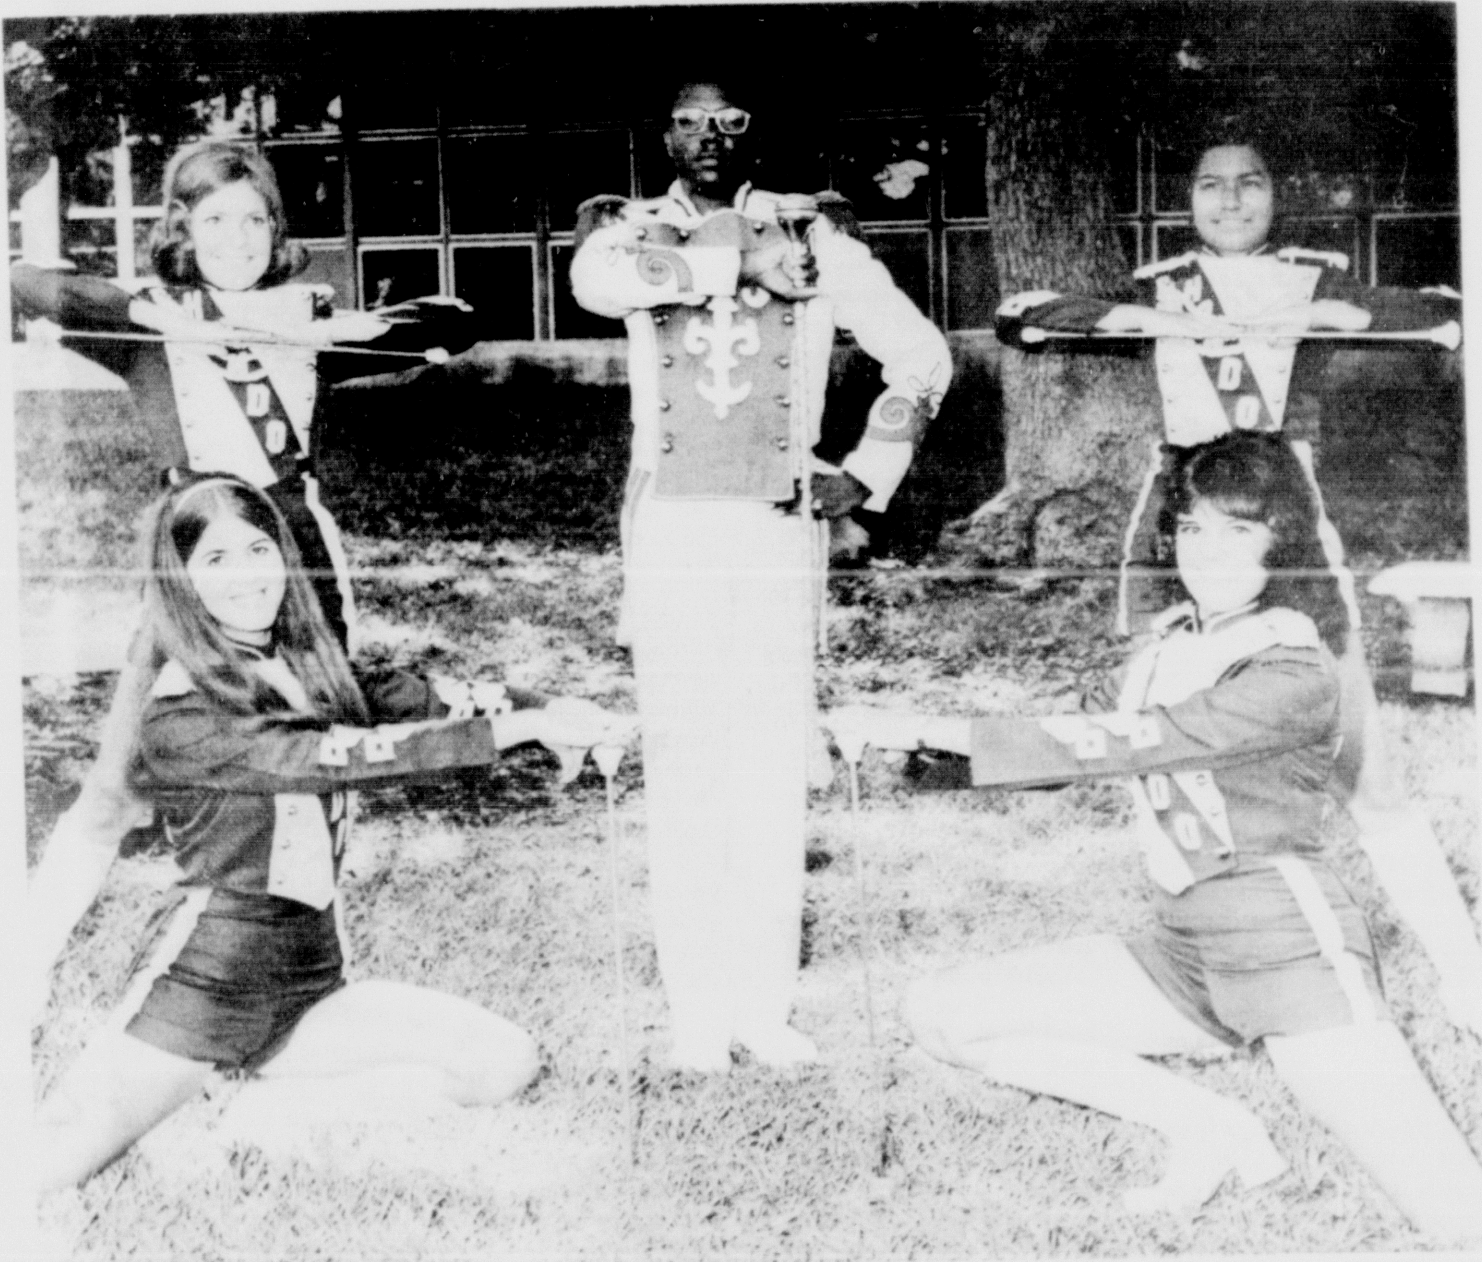

The structure can be used to help in employment, housing, health services and many other areas. There are really unlimited good that can be accomplished through RC&D."

The State conservation representative said that the most important factor in the RC&D planning is that "its accomplishments will depend upon the inflow coming from the lay people in each county, from local units of government, organizations, groups or individuals."

He added: "This local impetus and interest in doing good for each county and the 10-county region is what I mean when I say it is a local project with federal help rather than a federal project with local help."

Statistics presented at the meeting showed: there are 98 RC&D projects authorized by Congress in the nation, with only four of them authorized in Texas; the State has eight applications among the 74 now awaiting authorization by Congress; Texas has six areas preparing applications for submission, with the Alamo Area Council of Governments among this six.

Prisoner Pawns

HANOI HAS dusted off the most despicable and heartless propaganda stunt in its seemingly endless repertoire. Allegedly for humanitarian reasons, it is about to release three American prisoners of war — repeating similar releases of six men on two occasions in 1968, and three more men in 1969.

As welcome as the news certainly was to the prisoners and their loved ones, it remains a cruel hoax. The idea is to embarrass President Nixon just before the November election by raising hopes among other POW families that their men also could be freed by more defeatist cooperation with the enemy.

There is nothing humanitarian whatsoever in the pending new releases. The three airmen picked for the latest propaganda stunt have either previously assailed this nation's war policies in controlled interviews or have wives who are active in the anti-war movement.

It is highly doubtful, therefore, that the trio slated to come home will have anything but kind words to say about Hanoi and unkind words about the Nixon Administration. Which is the whole enemy idea.

You can be almost positive that there will be no reputation of what happened in 1969, when Navy Lt. Robert Frishman was freed and subsequently denounced the North Vietnamese for what he said was their dreadful treatment of prisoners.

Further assuring success for the enemy's latest propaganda ploy is the American agency claiming credit for the forthcoming releases — self-dubbed the Committee of Liaison with the Families of Servicemen Detained in North Vietnam.

This outfit, headed by anti-war activists David Dellinger and Cora Weiss, already has "warned" the United States government not to interfere with the activities of the three prisoners when they are released.

Any attempt to do so, Dellinger said, would jeopardize the possibility that Hanoi may release others of the hundreds of prisoners being held. It goes without saying that the possibility of Frishman-type truth telling would also be reduced to nearly zero.

The suggestion has been made that Dellinger's committee be prosecuted for trying to register with the Justice Department as the agent of a foreign power. Why not indeed?

From The San Antonio Light

The Big Question?

One of the main features of the Presidential campaign is obviously the issue of whether or not the United States is to remain a first-rate military power. A wave of antimilitarism that helped lead to McGovern's nomination for the Presidency has raised the question throughout the world of the real long-term meaning of the American withdrawal from Europe, from the Mediterranean and from other areas.

Senior Editor Arnaud de Borchgrave of Newsweek magazine sums up the reactions of the world's political and military analysts to such an American move in a Newsweek feature entitled "Europe: The New Soviet Threat." He begins his piece by saying: "By now, everyone has heard about McGovern's soak-the-rich tax proposals and his plan for ending the war in Vietnam. But far fewer people have paid any great attention to another radical plank in the McGovern platform — his program to cut the U. S. military presence in Europe to the bone by pulling out half the American troops stationed there. This is regrettable. For, in common with some of Europe's most perceptive political observers, I believe that such a cutback, which would drastically alter America's relationship with its former allies, is fraught with terrible danger."

Mr. de Borchgrave believes that the Soviet Union would unquestionably seek to fill the vacuum created by a U. S. withdrawal. This would end in either a new confrontation with Moscow or acceptance of Western Europe as a Soviet satellite. Western European leaders, reports Mr. de Borchgrave, cite statistics that "...argue that it is all but impossible for Europe to provide an effective military deterrent to the Soviet Union and its allies." Communist nations of Eastern Europe have 91 divisions in Europe, and the USSR maintains another 80 divisions in the westernmost districts of the Soviet Union. By contrast, the NATO nations have only 24 divisions — four and a half of them American.

In the heat of the U. S. Presidential campaign, many Americans are likely to miss the worldwide implications of a reduction in the military stature of the United States — especially if antimilitary emotions over the war in Vietnam are permitted to become a deciding factor. Past experience and cold logic indicate that the freedom of the Western World and very likely peace itself hinge upon the response of the U. S. electorate to the issue of the military posture that America is to assume in the future — an issue that is squarely before the people in this Presidential election year.

The Navasota Examiner

Kazen in Washington

A threat to cattle and horses in south Texas was one of my major concerns last week. The Congress resumed its session, but I was careful to keep informed on the problem of ticks that could be bearers of cattle fever. To help control the danger, I urged the Federal Government to expedite provision of more dipping vats in our cattle and horse raising areas, just as I earlier had asked assurances that funds would be available to maintain full production at the screwworm fly factory at Mission.

Federal and state officials are working hard on the tick problem, and they have already established certain quarantine areas from which animals cannot be moved until they have been certified tick-free. More dipping vats could reduce shipping delays.

THE ECONOMIC PICTURE

For the good of the country, I wish I saw more signs of economic recovery at a rate that promised effective progress. I have been hearing and reading a lot of optimistic statements, but I feel they get off the track. My two chief concerns are the cost of living and unemployment.

The first of these affects everyone, and the Government index shows an 18 percent increase in the past four years. The recent increases have not been as great as those before the wage-price controls, but the total rise is greater than the combination of the eight previous years. Corporate profits after taxes are down, too, and there continues to be a lack of investor confidence that slows down our gross national product.

JOBS EVERYONE'S WORRY

Unemployment levels stay high. Some statisticians say more people are working, but they disregard the even greater number seeking jobs. Further, the unemployment statistics disregard those who have abandoned hope of finding jobs.

But unemployment is not just a problem in the household where a man or woman, willing to work, cannot get a job. It affects everyone of us who must pay more money for welfare. It means fewer shoppers in our stores, and the record shows that some employers have cut back on their work force because their business was down.

I am not offering this as political discussion; I believe there is a challenge to others than politicians and Presidents or would-be Presidents. The problems are big enough for all of us.

WISE USE OF FUNDS

It is a time for the Congress to scrutinize proposed spending carefully. The essential standards were met last week, I believe, when we completed action on legislation to establish a new military academy in our nation. As is well-known, we have service academies to train officers for the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard and Merchant Marine, but now a new and specialized one is planned.

This will in time train doctors for the Armed Services, just as we now develop corps of military commanders. Over the years, most of the medical care for our military personnel has been provided by young men and women drafted into military service and assigned to medical specialties in which they had already been educated. Now, if all goes as planned, we are approaching the end of the military draft, and one of the effects would be shortages in medically trained personnel.

PEACE, WAR-TIME NEED

I believe that the medical health of our men and women in uniform is a national obligation in time of peace as well as war. It is obvious that we must provide medical care for those wounded in combat, but in peace-time we also have an obligation to provide expert guardians of the health of our military personnel.

Under the new plan, men and women who want to combine medical service with national service can seek career training. Graduates of the new academy, like other medical school graduates, may go on to specialized training. Each will have at least seven years' service obligation in return for his education. Our citizenry will be assured that our sons and daughters in uniform will get excellent health care. We shall pray that combat may not be part of their duty, but if that should call, they will be ready.

Secretary of State calls Lawrence a 'Republican'

Dear Mr. Lawrence:

I am sorry that I offended you by calling you a Republican which is obviously what you are. I suspect that you have been disgusted with most of the Democratic presidential candidates in the last 30 years. Like most so-called "Democrats for Nixon", you want all the benefits of being a Democrat in Texas while continually supporting Republicans. Well, as many newspapers are in the habit of saying, the benefits carry with them some responsibilities.

I have accepted many benefits of being a Democrat in Texas just as John Connally has done. The difference between me and John is that I don't always expect to be running the show or expect the party to accept all my views. Connally tried to be Vice President in 1968 on the Democratic ticket. When he didn't make it, he immediately switched sides. I predict that if the Republicans do not soon promise him the Presidential nomination in 1976, he will be back trying to impose his views upon the Democrats.

Connally and his so-called "Democrats for Nixon" have been supporting Republican candidates for years; they simply do not have courage to forego the benefits of being a Democrat and admit where their loyalties are.

I would like to see a massive "coming out" of these ashamed Republicans. Maybe then I would be able to believe that they had some real convictions instead of merely being blatant opportunists.

Sincerely yours,
Bob Bullock
Secretary of State

NOTE TO MR. BULLOCK:---

Your letter sounds better than those prepared for comedians on television.

It's a big joke. For you see I have never voted for a Republican in my life. In fact my friends have always told me I would vote for the Donkey if they ran it on a Democratic ticket.

Well, now I can prove them wrong. I can't stomach him. Back home in East Texas we called a man Motor Mouth who started his mouth running before putting his mind in gear. I see now this type is not confined to East Texas.

As far as I am concerned this is still a free country and you may support the candidate of your choice and flap all the wind you wish to about him.

But I do not approve of you doing it at the expense of the Texas taxpayers—sending out political releases on office stationary, using state employees to write the drivel, and using state money for postage. Apparently this is one of the benefits you so readily accept as a Democrat.

I still consider myself a Democrat. I feel that the Democratic Party has been the party of the average American for many years. Franklin D. Roosevelt proved this during the depression;

Harry Truman performed acts that will place him in history as one of the strongest presidents in the history of our country; Lyndon B. Johnson did more for the people during his tenure in office than any other president.

Yet, Sen. McGovern and his flock deserted them completely until they saw that without the endorsement of Johnson their campaign could go nowhere.

bers of local groups are taking it upon themselves to make sure that it does.

Are we on that threshold of making it come true in our town and county?

PICK ON WELFARE

. . . seems to be the popular game today. Politicians promise and counter promise. Businessmen jump in with both feet. Farmers and ranchers plow over it. Industry deplores it. News media keeps it under the spotlight of constant exposure.

And it all makes me wonder. I certainly am against abuses in the welfare program. I feel that the rules governing the allocation of welfare money should be much more stringent, for example: I feel that one illegitimate child is a pardonable mistake, but two, three, four or five are unacceptable burdens on society; therefore, the State should have a right to prevent this happening; I believe that those mothers (drawing aid to dependent children) who spend that money in some beer joint on some no-good man or herself should have to have that money managed by the State. (I would like to say that I firmly believe that in comparison to the whole, this type of mothers are few in number); I believe that the State needs more stringent laws aimed at those fathers who desert their families; I am against any person who can physically work but does not do so and draws welfare money through some ruse; I feel that any child who is consistently abused or neglected by its parents should quickly be made a ward of the State and placed for foster care and eventual adoption.

Yet, I stand firmly in favor of aiding those helpless children who never asked to be born into this world and have no say in a father deserting his family, or in an act of God making them fatherless or motherless or designating that they be born into poverty; I am for more help to our senior citizens, for the blind and the disabled.

So you wonder why I say I am puzzled about welfare being a whipping post for every person in the United States who is not on welfare?

Simply because many, many of those persons who yell the loudest against welfare are getting some kind of handout from the government. Oil people receive depletion allowances (which I am not against, but which is, nevertheless, a government subsidy); farmers and ranchers receive help through soil bank, conservation practices, elimination of gasoline and sale tax on certain items, parity and other areas (which I am not against, but which is, nevertheless, a government subsidy); there is probably not a hospital in the United States that has not been helped by the Hill-Burton Act which calls for the Federal government paying much of the cost for all equipment in that hospital, equipment which is used by all doctors without charge so that he can perform his profession and receive a fee from the people who provided the equipment, as well as the hospital in many cases, through tax money. (I am not against this act which has immensely improved health services provided to all citizens, but it is, nevertheless, a subsidy.)

All newspapers and magazines mail their products by second class mail, which Congress set at a lower figure so that the public could be better informed. I am not against this, but it is, nevertheless, a subsidy.

Taxpayers put out good money to build giant airports so that airlines can provide much needed, and absolutely necessary, speedy transportation. In this way and others, the government subsidizes the airlines; it subsidizes the steamship lines that ply the seven seas; it subsidizes a million and one things in our society today.

So I say, let's get off the back of welfare. Certainly, let's work diligently to eliminate the abuses, to train people for better jobs, to provide those better jobs so that they can get off the welfare rolls; let's make every effort to help them become independent and productive citizens.

But let's not beat welfare to death as a smoke screen to cover up all the ways the Federal government helps put extra dollars in our pockets.

Farm Prices Show Slight Drop . . . Turkey Production Declines . . . Five Counties Added to Fire Ant Control Area . . . Food and Fiber Pavilion Readied . . .

Prices received by farmers and ranchers as of the middle of August showed a seven point drop from a year ago. But prices are 18 percent above 1971.

All meat animals were down from a month ago, but were at higher levels compared to a year ago. Poultry and eggs were below a year ago. Milk prices were up; wool and mohair were unchanged from last month, but showed some increase from a year ago.

The all-crops index was up four percent from a year ago. The majority of field crops were down from last year with the exception of wheat, rice, potatoes, and cotton which were above last year.

Only one farm commodity—calves—was above full effective parity. Cotton, for example, has a parity of 55.16 cents per pound. The price average was 30 cents per pound. Grain sorghum price averaged $2.08, but the parity is $3.33 per hundredweight.

Wheat averaged $1.55 compared with $1.38 a year ago.

LIVESTOCK prices included: hogs averaged $27.70 with full parity at $30.60. Beef cattle parity is $36.80; average price was $33.20. Calf parity is $44.20; average price received by farmers was $44.20.

Parity price for eggs is 44.9 cents per dozen; average price to Texas producers was 34 cents per dozen.

TURKEY production in Texas is expected to be four percent under the 1971 levels, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service reports. The current crop is estimated at 8,015,000 birds compared with 8,378,000 raised last year. Texas is now the sixth ranked state in turkey production.

Nationwide, turkey production is expected to be higher by seven percent this year compared to last year. Minnesota is the number one turkey producing state in the nation with an expected 20,700,000 birds this season.

Harlon Wolff of Hondo was elected temporary vice chairman of the region-wide Steering Committee. Temporary chairman is Joe Nickel of Boerne. The committee will meet again on October 5 and elect permanent officers.

Wolff, who is chairman of the Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District, serves as chairman of the Medina County RC&D Committee.

The County RC&D Committee is comprised of a representative from each sponsoring unit and others that might be appointed. Sponsors must be units of government, i.e., commissioners courts, city councils, school districts, water improvement districts, etc.

Other groups such as chambers of commerce, civic organizations, and other groups can endorse the RC&D project, and are urged to do so.

The main objective of the county committees is to advise the Steering Committee on all programs proposed in the county pertaining to the orderly use, development, conservation and utilization of the natural resources in the county area.

It also serves as a focal point for leadership, guidance, coordination, development and implementation of a Resource Conservation and Development Work Plan for the project area; and will provide technical assistance to project sponsors in the preparation, development and implementation of RC&D measures arising from the Work Plan.

And last, but certainly not least in the order of importance, the County Committee will exercise every effort to promote public awareness of the necessity for orderly regional development and wise use of natural resources.

"Without the people knowing and realizing the RC&D objectives, and their importance to the improvement of the area, the project will never achieve its potential," Hovel said. "With their interest and help we can accomplish great things."

Event planners also will honor Lupe Barrientes, who recently was named winner in the National Junior G. I. Forum contest and performed in a segment of a Here's Lucy television show.

Representatives from surrounding cities will also participate and civic and community leaders from Hondo will be special guests.

Fiesta Entre Amigos committee members include: Father George Stuebben, Father Emmett Carolan, Henry Dominguez, Mary J. Lopez, Joe Benites, Lupe Alvarez, Beatrice Nira, Ramon Carrasco Jr., Sonny Schmidt, Simon Arcos, Tony Mendoza, Rogelio Carmona, Lupe Rodriguez, Gilbert Contreras, Joe Mares Alex Rodriguez.

Many others also are helping produce this event, the proceeds from which will go to St. John's Catholic Church.

Mrs. Nettle Wurzbach, 91, of San Antonio died Saturday, September 9, 1972.

Survivors include daughter, Mrs. Otto Ewert; two grandchildren, Fred Lillyan Zenner of Bryan; six great-grandchildren; brothers, M. F. Schuchart, Raymond Schuchart and Archie Schuchart; sisters, Mrs. Lema Haegelin and Mrs. Gladys Green.

Funeral service was on Sept. 11 at Zion Lutheran Church of Castroville. Interment was in Zion Lutheran Church of Helotes Cemetery.

COUNTY BUDGET

same $1.10 per $100 valuation that it has been in for some three years.

Total assessed valuations showed: County--$29,500,000 and State $24,100,000. Total valuation increased some $600,000 over the last year. Tax rate is based on 22 percent of true market value.

Commissioners estimate that 90 percent of the $308,300 assessed taxes will be paid. This means $298,317.15 will be left as a balance at the end of the year.

Bonded indebtedness of the county will be $183,000 at the end of 1972 and it is expected that during the coming year some $20,000 will be paid on the principal and $6,693.75 will be paid on the interest.

The Sales Agent shall secure approval of the Commissioners Court before selling any property for less than the opening bid fixed in the tax foreclosure judgment.

In the Monday meeting the Court also adopted a resolution supporting application for funds to all AACOG to sponsor and perform solid waste planning.

Game laws as they are now prescribed were approved by the Court.

In other action Commissioners:

Clay-Delony nuptials solemnized here

In a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening, September 2nd, Miss Donna Kay Clay and James F. Delony, Jr. repeated their marriage vows at the palm-shadowed altar of the United Methodist Church in Hondo. Rev. H. Ellis, grand-uncle of the groom, conducted the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Henry Floyd Clay and the late Mr. Clay of Graham, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Delony of Hondo are parents of the groom.

Preceding the wedding ceremony, Mrs. Houston Eggen at the organ played a medley of traditional bridal music, and accompanied

Mr. Charles Yundt, uncle of the groom, who sang "O Promise Me".

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, L. S. Ward, of Graham, wore an empire-style high-necked gown of candlelight poise de sole. The neckline, bodice and bracelet-length sleeves were enhanced by lace, encrusted by crystal and pearl beads, as was the toe-length hem of the skirt. The court train, which fell from the waist, was trimmed with matching lace. An illusion veil flowed from a headpiece of pearls, flowers, and covered the entire length of the court train. The bride's bouquet was a nosegay arrangement of white and pink rosebuds centered by a white orchid, and showered with white rosebuds.

The bride's attendants, Miss Kathy Clay, sister of the bride, and Miss Debra Delony, sister of the groom, wore identical floor-length dresses of turquoise blue, designed with puff sleeves, scooped necklines and white sashes, fashioned to form empire waists. Both carried nosegays of pink and white rosebuds.

Flower girl, Sharon Gray, train-bearers, Jennifer Buck and Donna Reid, wore dresses exactly like the bride's maids'.

Ring-bearer Eugene Gray, presented the wedding rings on a lace-frilled satin pillow.

Attending the groom was his best man, Clifton Wiemers, and groomsmen, Trent Delony, Ushers and candle-lighters were Jim Behringer, cousin of the groom of San Angelo, and Terry Teague of Hondo.

Here in Hondo

Mrs. Margaret Behrens returned to her home in Austin after spending the Labor Day holidays with her mother, Mrs. Armin Rothe, in Hondo. While here they visited relatives in Crystal City, Uvalde and Utopia.

That's all she wrote

by Edna McDade

Look who's back in print -- which goes to prove you can't really believe all you read in the Anvil Herald.

In June I said you'd read the last of several hundred TASW columns. I must admit that I have missed writing them, as I have missed being counted among those present in Medina County.

When Bill Berger and Burnis Lawrence suggested that I "begin again where I left off", I agreed before they could change their minds. Now it might require a People's Protest to make me cease firing.

For this and countless other courtesies extended to me by these two gentlemen, I am "beholden", however unaccustomed to the light of popular usage this good English word has become.

This is to thank Bill for his generous comments in a recent "SPARKS" column. I sincerely appreciated them, allowing for any kindly personal prejudice in my behalf. I did feel a bit like the woman whose mountaineer moonshiner husband was being laid to rest and eulogized out of all proportion to his qualifications by the loquacious preacher.

"Jeddy," she said to her son, "go look and see for sure if that's your Pa a-layin' in that there buryin' box."

Another thank you is due Mrs. Oswald Nira for her comment. Someday we might form a mutual admiration society!

Letters-from-home have truly been "as good news from a far country" for all the only 150-miles or so that now separate me from Hondo. They have also served to heap coals of fire on my head as The Good Book says.

To solve my procrastinating conscience, I take refuge in rereading Christopher Morley's delightful essay "On Unanswering Letters", which begins:

"There are a great many people who really believe in answering letters the day they are received, just as there are people who go to the movies at nine o'clock in the morning; but these people are stunted and queer. It is a great mistake. . . ."

Read the rest of Morley's defense if you are among those who - - -

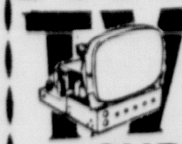

When I was "back home" for the Labor Day holiday (shortest on record or so it seemed) I greeted many friends, by phone or on the street, and all were so cordial I had to give my ego a strong talking-to to keep its deflation in proper perspective.

Howdys were exchanged with my friends at the POST OFFICE counter (who let me have stamps at the going price); buddies at the HERALD office; DOC TAYLOR to whom I reported that CC had had three consecutive rainless weeks and that, if the trend continued, he might stand by for a call for help; Mrs. GENE HARRISON, mother of one of my favorite second-graders, HALEY HARRISON; EDNA (Mrs. E. M.) NESTER, mother of JUDY LORFING whose "A'lms Box" bags are creating a growing demand-including an order from Corpus, based on admiration for the Road-Runner one I proudly own; FELICIA DOMINGUEZ and DELMA TOLAR, sister and niece of TONY (Printing) MENDOZA; the C. B. GASTONS (miss my good neighbors!); and my "little-girl" friends, JUDY HEILIGMAN and DOROTHY JONES who are now HHS freshmen and OWL Fans for sure.

I took time to make a few local purchases at LEINWEBERS; PEDEN-REXALL; JONES SHOE STORE where RALPH and I discussed State-of-the-Union matters (now in sort of a mess); EDNA'S FLOWERS; SUPER-SAV (for Big Blue soda to convince a CC non-believer that it ever existed); NESTER's for sausage, a special order from Son-John.

I made random notes for future columns and I'll save any coast-flavored commentary for later. Home is supposed to be "where the heart is" though I might require a heart transplant because mine seems equally divided between 301 Paloma Street, Corpus Christi (78412) and Hondo (78861).

And do I ever miss my Sister SALLY (bless-her-heart) BRUCKS. But I'm sure Ma Bell really loves us both!

Jonelle Rose Wurzbach is bride of Michael Crow

Miss Jonelle Rose Wurzbach and Michael Winston Crow were married Saturday, July 22, 1972 at St. Louis Catholic Church, Castroville, with Father Lawrence Stueben officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. August J. Wurzbach and Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Crow, all of Castroville, and Mr. and Mrs. B. H. McSpadden of San Antonio.

Large baskets of green and white gladioli and greenery decorated the church. The traditional wedding music was provided by Mrs.

Maurice Fox, including Clair de Lune, The Our Father and We've Only Just Begun. Mass servers were Scott Keller, nephew and godchild of the bride and Geoffrey Graff, Dean, Jon and Jerilyn Keller, nephews and niece of the bride, presented the offertory gifts.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in an empire waist, A-line gown of imported silk organza with appliques of French Alencon lace, trimmed with magnificent pearl and crystal on the bodice, collar, skirt and detachable chapel-length train. The long fitted sleeves, with beaded lace appliques running down the length of them formed a lantern effect. A headpiece of lace and pearl held her finger-tip silk illusion veil. Two white japhet orchids centered her cascading bouquet of yellow roses, white snowflake mums and baby's breath. English ivy surrounded the bouquet and streamed down amid gold and white ribbons.

Mrs. Alfred R. Breiten, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Harold Keller and Miss Donna Keller, sister and niece of the bride, and Mesdames Alvin Kowalik, Dennis Schirmer and B. J. Jungman.

All wore floor-length dresses of taffeta accented with yellow satin ribbon and yellow shoes. They wore yellow snowflake mums in their hair and carried nosegays of matching mums with yellow ribbon and English ivy. All wore gold cameo pendants, a gift from the bride.

Robert Crow, Corpus Christi, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were Rodney Mangold, Dale Holzhaus, Dennis Schirmer, David Schulte and F. J. Wurzbach. Ushers were Alfred R. Breiten, Harold Keller, Ray Wurzbach, Wayne Hubbard and Dennis Hildebrandt.

Following the ceremony, a reception and dance was held at Koenig Park Hall. Mrs. Carroll Keller presided at the guest register. Cake servers were Mmes. Frank Fournier III and Jerry Adamietz and Miss Shirley Wurzbach. The wedding march was led by Mr. and Mrs. Hillmer Scheel, New Braunfels.

Following a wedding trip to Corpus Christi, the couple is now residing in San Antonio.

REHEARSAL SUPPER Prior to the wedding, the couple and their wedding party were honored with a rehearsal supper hosted by the bridegroom's parents.

Social Security

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

QUESTION: I received a form from Baltimore asking me to fill it out and sign so they can give me a social security number. My claim number is my husband's social security number plus the letter "D". Why do I need a number of my own?

ANSWER: This request goes to all wives and widows over age 65 who are receiving dependents' benefits under social security. Regulations now require that all beneficiaries have an annuity complete the form even if you already have a social security card; your account number may not be in your claims file.

QUESTION: I have been unable to work since January 11, 1972 because of stomach ulcers and arthritis. Should I apply for disability payments? ANSWER: Yes. However, you must have a physical or mental impairment severe enough to keep you from working for at least 12 months to qualify for benefits. You should apply now unless you expect to be able to return to work before next January. If you qualify, benefits can begin with August, six months after you become disabled. QUESTION: I have heard that school teachers may receive social security benefits even though they continue working and earn quite a bit over the $1680 limit. How is this possible?

ANSWER: Social security benefits are payable for any month in which a person does not earn over $140 in wages or work substantially in a business. This is true no matter what amount is earned in the year. Beneficiaries who are teachers may be entitled to checks for some months if they do not work in those months.

County wells not properly completed

Some water wells drilled in Medina County have not met full specifications, according to a note in the Edwards Underground Water District Bulletin.

The article states: "The U. S. Geological Survey reports that some wells drilled during the past year in this area (Medina County) have not been cased to the top of the Edwards Limestone formation.

"The Survey reports that along Highway 90 from Dunlay to the Uvalde County line the top of the Edwards formation is a minimum of 1,250 feet below land surface, and that the formation slopes sharply to the south and is about 2,100 feet below the surface near Yancey.

"This condition is probably due to the fact that drillers not familiar with the area have mistaken the Eagle Ford Shale-Buda Limestone contact for the Del Rio Clay-Edwards contact, which is about 120 feet below the upper contact.

"The U. S. Geological Survey personnel at 7077 San Pedro in San Antonio are always available to help either landowners or drillers to see that the Edwards Limestone Reservoir is properly protected."

Owls edge Tigers, 27-26

The Hondo Owls took a hard-fought victory from the Floresville Tigers Friday night by a bare 27-26 margin.

The game was no masterpiece of finesse for either team, but a brutal, battling contest that saw big plays sprinkled with missed assignments and errors.

It was all to be expected from two evenly-matched district-picks playing the opening game of the season.

The initial scoring drive by the Blue came on the first possession of the first quarter, with a 3rd and 5 situation on the Tiger 23-yard line. After a first down by Buescher, the Owls had been stopped in two plays, but a Floresville penalty advanced the ball 5 yards to make it 3rd and 5 as Finger dropped back to throw. Keith Ligon was waiting in the left flat and barged in for the score. The point after by Ligon was good, and the score stood 7-0 Hondo with 6:50 left to play in the first quarter.

Gayland Pelech, a Tiger who was to give the Owls fits all night, took the kickoff by McAnelly at the goal line, and advanced about 19 yards before being corralled by Oefinger.

But on the first play from scrimmage, somebody fumbled and Mark Buescher and Fred Bader were on the spot for the recovery on the 20-yard line.

This time, after Buescher gained two tough yards, Ligon took the quick pitch and gained about 11 yards to the Tiger seven. On second and goal, from near the 10, a good Zinsmeyer block spring Ligon for the second scoring run, around right end. The kick was good, but a penalty moved the ball back to the 25, and the second attempt was wide. With 4:28 left in the first, score was Owls 13-Tigers 0.

The second kickoff by McAnelly was one of those lucky few that look like they have eyes of their own. It paralleled the boundary line, right into the coffin corner, unmolested, and the Tigers took possession on the 20.

This time the Tiger drive lasted six plays and a first down, out to the Floresville 34 before an incomplete pass from Wright intended for Stevens forced the punt.

Brian Finger took the kick, bobbled it, then recovered it on the Owl 41. A major penalty, again in the Owls favor, moved the ball across mid-field to the Tiger 44, where the Owls set up.

A hurried, possibly partially blocked punt by Ligon went only to the Floresville 37 after the Owls failed to move the ball. As the second quarter started, there followed an exchange of fumbles, one by the Tigers recovered by Helvey at the Floresville 48; the other by Ligon on the next play, with the Tigers pouncing on it. After a good pass from Stevens to Billy Deagen on the Owl 21, Floresville couldn't move the ball and elected to try for the first down with 4th and 11 on the Owl 22.

The stifling Owl defense held once more as Greg Buescher hit QB Wright for a six-yard loss, and the ball went over. But once again the Owls were set back by a fumble on their own 27 on a 3rd and 7 play by Ligon.

This time the Tigers knew what to do and in five plays, including a 14-yard ramble by Pelech to the 1-yard line, Matthews took the ball in. The point after was good, and the score with 6:07 left in the half was

Disaster struck again for the Owls as they were held after the kickoff and had to punt from their 28 on a 4th and 3 situation. Ligon may or may not have kicked the ball, but he was hit hard and shaken up, William Harris picked up the ball and breezed untouched into the end zone, to make it a 13-13 tie with 4:41 left in the half. The point-after was moved back to the 25 on a penalty, and the Tiger kicker could do no better than the Owls at that range. The score remained tied.

Ligon was not to return in the first half, but Juan Campos filled in with a 6-yard gain on the first play after the kickoff. A run by McAnelly and a penalty gave the Owls a first down, the Floresville 44, but then Pelech picked off a Finger pass, following good blocking down to the Owl 19-yard line.

The Blue defense once again rose to the occasion, and a fourth-down field goal from the 15 was no good, and the Tiger threat was stopped.

The half ended with the score still tied 13-13.

The second half opened with a good kick by McAnelly to Ramirez, who was stopped on the Tiger 21.

A run over right guard was stopped by Campos, but on second and 7 the option worked for the Tigers to perfection. Pelech went 77 yards for the go-ahead touchdown, and the kick was good. With 11:03 in the third quarter, the score stood at 20-13, Floresville.

Despite a 13-yard gain by Ligon, who was reinjured in his first play since his injury in the first half, the Owl offensive sputtered and McAnelly kicked again, this time to the Tiger 7.

From there, Hondo made the big play again, as Garcia recovered a fumbled pass reception on the 22-yard line.

Braden had the honors three plays later, going in from the 16-yard line for another Owl touchdown. A two-point conversion play went awry, and the score stood at Floresville 20-Hondo 19, with 6:55 left in the quarter.

After the kickoff, Hackebell held Matthews for no gain and with 2nd and 10, the Owls once again intercepted a Tiger pass, taking over after a major penalty on Floresville at the Tiger 15.

In a key third down play after gaining three and losing two yards, in two downs, Finger hit Helvey in a crowd near the Floresville 4-yard line. Buescher made three yards, then the last big one to put the Owls back in the lead, 25-20. This time the conversion was good for two points as Finger scrambled in a la Roger Staubach. Score: 27-20 late in the third quarter.

The Tigers mounted a good drive after the kickoff, and the quarter ended with a first down on the Owl 19-yard line.

Three plays later, the Tigers miscued again, with a personal foul call against them as Pelech had a first down made in a clutch 4th and 4 situation. With the ball on the Hondo 28 and the first down marker at the 9, the Tigers uncorked a surprise halfback pass by Pelech.

Terry Mechler wasn't surprised at all as he picked it off and returned it to the Hondo 26.

The Owls couldn't move this time and Finger's punt was blocked for a 9-yard loss, back to the Owl 18-yard line.

With time growing short, the Tigers had to make the opportunity count, and they did. Driving to the Owl 3-yard line, the Tigers made a first down, and two plays later, Pelech took the ball over the left side for the touchdown with 5:46 left in the game, score 27-26, Hondo.

Faced with a choice of kicking for the tie or going for the win, Quarterback Wright dropped back to pass for two points, but his throw was knocked down to preserve the Owl lead of one point.

Greg Buescher found himself the target for an out-of-side kick by the Tigers, and he knew what to do. He fell on it safely to give the Owls

Mike Saathoff (61) has a shot at Floresville back Carlos Matthews. Clyde Oefinger (74) must hurdle downed Owl Juan Campos who has just been shoe-laced by Number 70, John Tackitt.

1st and 10 on their own 45. A five-yard penalty backed the ball up to the 40.

Once again, the Tigers proved to be tough in the clutch as they picked off a pass on 3rd and 16 taking the ball to the Hondo 43-yard line.

But the Owls were ready this time as the stout Blue line forced the ball to go over as Matthews was run out of bounds on a 4th and 6 try.

The Owl possession ended in four plays also, as furious Tiger tackling forced a fumble and Tiger recovery on the Owl 27, with barely 46 seconds left in the game. The Tigers had no time-outs left by this time, and they ran their plays quickly.

On a fourth and 10, Stevens attempted a field goal, which proved to be wide of the mark.

With about 18 seconds left, Finger was glad to fall on the ball and end the whole wild, well-fought game with a 27-26 victory.

Uvalde Coyotes

It's a new spirit that pervades Coyote-land this year. For many years, it was "Let's try to win some games and maybe capture District". This year, it's "After the State Finals, what?"

After a 15-year drought, the Coyotes put together a district champion team last year. Head Coach Marvin Gustafson has been quietly, patiently building a winning spirit along with a physically strong team since his debut in Uvalde in 1965. Two years before his arrival, the Coyotes had suffered their worst season ever, 0-9-1.

Now it appears the boys are not only strong, but experienced. Eleven starters will return this fall, including seven offensive and four defensive players. Among the returnees is Mike Bingham, (6-0, 215), an offensive guard and defensive tackle tabbed for All-District last year.

Returning running backs include two "71 All-District picks and an honorable mention, Mike Paradeaux, who at 160 pounds last year added All West Texas honors to his collection, returns this fall at 165.

Joining Mike in the backfield are Oscar Mirelez, (5-8, 165); and Steve Stoy, (5-11, 170). Stoy is a junior, while Paradeaux and Mirelez are seniors.

Another star in the Coyote sky is Ronnie Rogers, who at 6-4, 220 pounds was also chosen All West Texas at tackle and linebacker. More line help will come from All West Texas tackle Buck Laning, and linebacker ing duties will be handled by a gutsy Hal Chapman, who at 5-7, 160, is, pound for pound, the best Uvalde defenseman. And look for Randy Gerdes at tight end.

When you can't raise enough at home, import what you need, economists say. Uvalde has been twice blessed with two Crystal City transfers in Ruben Alcorta, a split end with good hands and also good moves, and his old javelin battery-mate Quarterback Lynn Leonard, who as a sophomore led the Javelins, and performed well on the undefeated Coyote Junior Varsity last season. Their arrival is doubly timely due to the graduation of Quarterback Richard Collier and End Jay Harpole.

In a word, the Coyotes are "arrived". The only drawback is depth, but letterman David Rumble at fullback, along with halfback Robert Lara and quarterback Clay Ammerman and Kim Sobieski (who also punts and can fill in at split end) will soothe most wounds in the starting roster. Second-line linemen include Ernest Lira and Richard Sanchez, both lettermen, and prospects Bobby Hall, Manuel Zuniga and David Toone. Probable finish: 1st in District 14-AAA. Don't catch them on a good day.

Cowboys down Sabinal 28-0

Sabinal won the coin toss, but little else last Friday night in a season-opening football game with the D'Haris Cowboys, in Sabinal. The Cowboys, capitalizing on Yellowjacket mistakes, owned the entire game, and went home with a 28-0 victory.

On the second play after the opening kickoff, Sabinal's Tommy Van Pelt fumbled and it was Ronnie Koch of the Cowboys who recovered.

The next play saw D'Haris quarterback Bobby Joe Rothe scrambling to the Jackets' 10-yard line. After moving the ball to the Jack- et 10-yard line, quarterback Rothe called his own number and took the ball in for the opening score. The 2-point conversion pass to Charles Hood was successful, and the score stood D'Haris 8-0 with one and a half minutes gone in the game.

Does history repeat itself? You dam right it does. Once again in the same period, it was Koch on top of a Sabinal fumble at the Jack- et 22. The Cowboys moved to the 14-yard line, where Spencer Burrell scored on a sweep. This time the conversion was no good, and the score after one quarter was D'Haris 14, Sabinal 0.

The second quarter passed with neither team being able to sustain a drive.

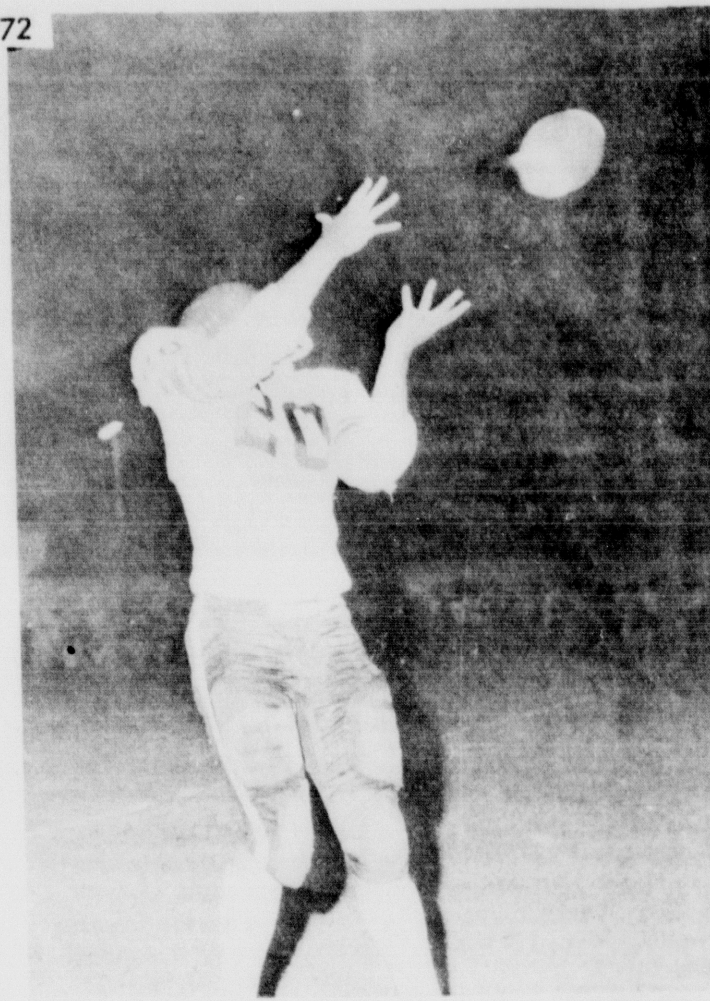

The third quarter saw yet another Sabinal fumble, and once again it was recovered by Ronnie Koch. And once again it was Burrell who took the ball seven yards to the touchdown. A completed pass to Burrell for the conversion made it 22-0.

The fourth D'Haris score was another trick up the same sleeve. At the 50-yard line, Spencer Burrell grabbed a Yellowjacket pass and returned it all the way for the final D'Haris score.

The extra-point try was no good, and the scoreboard at the end of the game read Cowboys 28, Yellowjackets 0.

This Friday night at 8 p. m. the Cowboys will meet the Lytle Pirates, in Lytle. SUMMARIES

First Downs (D'Haris first)--10, 7; Rushing yardage--123, 100; Passing--37, 30; Fumbles--3, 5.

The Junior Owls allowed Medina Valley to score first and then came back within two minutes on a 15-yard run by Forrest Horecka and a two-point conversion by Bobby Ibarra.

The Owl "B" squad built up a 21-0 halftime lead and then coasted to a 34-0 win. Leslie Taylor scored twice for Hondo--a 37-yard run and a 35-yard return of an intercepted pass.

Other scores were by Robert Rodriguez and Bob Spears on short runs and a pass from Bobby Rios to Larry McWilliams.

Compare Farm Loan Features
You'll find the Co-op way of financing offers more advantages to the borrower

Like other cooperatives, the Federal Land Bank is owned by its members. It operates solely for the benefit of the farmers who control it.

As a Land Bank Association stockholder, you benefit from economies of collective borrowing in the nation's money markets. Mortgage money is available to borrower-members on favorable terms.

In addition, you can get extra years to repay a Land Bank loan; payments are smaller and easier to handle. You may prepay part or all of the loan without penalty.

Whatever your need for long-term financing, a Land Bank loan can be customized to your exact requirements. We would welcome an opportunity to talk it over at your convenience.

Council agenda is light

Mandatory retirement, for city employees over 65, a water pollution survey, a new railroad crossing with gates and flashers at Castro Avenue and a proposed 40-unit apartment complex dominated business at the Tuesday night meeting of the Hondo City Council.

Beginning with a plea from Paul Reilly to retain present Librarian Lottie Maw, who nears the mandatory retirement age, the Council voted a new guideline. A motion made by Pete Pedroza and seconded by Bud Gwartney was passed unanimously which allows employees over 65 to be reviewed annually by their department chief for retention. New mandatory retirement age would be 70 years of age.

During the department hearings, Water Department head Elmer Faeiler reported that a new report requested by AACOG (Alamo Area Council of Governments) would require a survey of each present or potential source of industrial waste discharge, including filling stations which rinse driveways into storm sewers, used car lots, or places where stored fertilizer could be rained on.

The survey should be completed in two weeks, and in the future a pollution ordinance will be introduced. Mr. Myers of Southern Pacific Railroad reported that new crosswalks were completed on schedule by September 1 for Avenue M crossing. He added that approval has been made of a crossing at Castro Avenue which will include both gates and flashing lights. City expense of the project will be 10% of a $27,000 expense, or $2700.

In further business, Elmo Pope, Mrs. E. G. Pope and a San Antonio developer discussed for a 40-unit apartment complex to be built at Avenue U and 30th St. The project would be five buildings of 8 units each. Rental range on the apartments would vary from $100 for a single-bedroom unit to $115 for 2-bedroom units.

The only necessary utility not available yet is an extension of a 6" water main to the site. Council approval of the project was voted subject to the agreed costs of

Soil fertility is subject

A program on Soil Fertility will be presented to members and guests of the Hondo Young Farmer Chapter Tuesday night, Sept. 19, at the Hondo City Park.

Dr. Harold Rice of Houston, chief agronomist in a 7-state area for the Olin Corporation, will be the featured speaker. Dr. Rice will discuss the use of fertilizers on Medina County crops and soils.

A barbecue supper will be served by Young Farmers and invited guests beginning at 7 p.m. with the program following. The meal and program are being co-sponsored by the Olin Corporation and Mumme's Incorporated of Hondo.

A short business meeting will be held following the program by the Young Farmers and new officers will be elected for the coming year. Out-going officers are Glenn Dittmar, president; Larry Oefinger, secretary; Rothe Martin, treasurer; George Gooding, vice president; and Darwin Schrader, reporter. Plans to attend the Area VII Young Farmer-Young Homemaker Convention in Fredericksburg on Sept. 23 will also be discussed.

water main installation. In other business, Fred Johnson discussed means of extending the electric power supply for Hondo after the present system reaches its capacity by next year or the following year. He also discussed means of procuring secondary or emergency sources of electricity for Hondo.

Finally, Police Chief Jerry Williamson reports that the Hondo Police Department

Airbase reunion planned

Want to turn back the clock 30 years and have a good time with old friends you never thought you would see again?

If you were among those persons who had "any kind of connection" with the early beginning of Hondo Airbase, you can do exactly that come September 29 and 30.

"The 30 Year Hondo Group Reunion is on," says the two San Antonio residents organizing the event, "and we want everyone who had any connection or interest in Hondo to attend. This includes military, ex-military, civilians, husbands and/or wives."

Hondo Reunion headquarters will be at the La Mansion Motor Hotel in San Antonio and a Friday afternoon (Sept. 29) hospitality social is planned to initiate the event.

Saturday, Sept. 30, plans call for a Hondo "Group Night" at Randolph AFB Officers Club.

"We need help in locating people and seeing that they get to the big event," said Stan Price and Ed Osander, two Hondo Airbase early birds who are ramrodding the reunion.

was no-billed by a Uvalde Grand Jury in the investigation of the pursuit into Uvalde County and fatal shooting of Nelson Harold Corder of Castroville last February. Corder's vehicle was pursued from Hondo all the way to a spot north of Sabinal by Hondo and Sabinal police, where a stray shot fired at the vehicle's tires struck Corder. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Uvalde Memorial Hospital.

"Scratch your heads, check your Christmas mailing list, write or phone your buddies about the Reunion and let's make this a BIG ONE!" they said.

Anyone interested in attending should let these two know and send them $2.00 to help defray the expense of putting on such a show. Acceptance and the $2.00 can be mailed to: Stan Price, 736 Grandview Place, San Antonio 78209, or Ed Osander, 800 Eventide Drive, San Antonio 78209. Osander's telephone number if anyone needs further information is: 1-826-1414.

"Most of all we need help in getting out the word," Price and Osander said Monday on a visit to Hondo where they visited with Harry Filleman, Fritz Leinweber, Ray Jennings and Henry Schulte.

"So if you want to help," they urged, "just write, phone, whistle or send Indian smoke signals to anyone, just anyone, who might have been connected with Hondo Airbase 30 years ago. 'We'll be glad to greet them all.'"

Killing snakes again!

Ascension Muniz has killed another whopper-sized rattler. He lives in the Prairie area near Sabinal and killed this "grand-daddy" rattler which measures a little over 5 1/2 feet. Viewing the rattler with Ascension are Roman Garcia and his four-year-old son, Orlando Jose, from D'Hanis. (Photo by Father Victor)

Hondo residents who attended the Folklife Festival in San Antonio last weekend said it was fun. Some of those there were the Fred Baders, Gerald Hays, Jim Fridles, Jerome Dekcers, Joe Fohn, Floyd Saathoffs, 4-H Club members and the Burnis Lawrences

FLYING OUT OF THE PAST

... This World War II vintage F6F Hellcat currently stands at the flight line at Gary Aircraft, undergoing repairs and inspection. Owned by Ed Messick of San Antonio, the 30-year old fighter is one of no more than 3 or 4 of its type in the world still flying. Gary also overhauls its huge radial engine, which is the same as those which power the D.C.-6's regularly repaired at Gary. The airplane is one of a collection of 1940's era military planes which perform around the nation as the Confederate Air Force Flying Museum.

Pro Football Picks

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

ATLANTA.....17 CHICAGO.....13
Unless one of the three Falcon quarterbacks can generate an offense, the Bears could take it. Also, the Bears play this one in front of the home folks.

BALTIMORE.....27 ST. LOUIS.....20
Cards have had a more impressive exhibition season than have the Colts. However, Colt fans don't start yelling until the season starts... this one's in Baltimore.

CINCINNATI.....24 NEW ENGLAND.....20
Both teams could very well double their scores if the combination Bengal-Patriot defenses continue their "ineptivity".

DALLAS.....28 PHILADELPHIA.....13
It's very easy to say that the Cowboys shouldn't have any trouble... and they shouldn't!

DETROIT.....30 NEW YORK GIANTS.....17
Everyone thinks the Giants may be on the way back, but the Lions will delay that return just a bit.

GREEN BAY.....23 CLEVELAND.....21
If we really stopped to analyze why we picked the Packers, we'd probably pick the Browns! A real close.

HOUSTON.....14 DENVER.....13
Oilers catch Bronchos in Denver, so it could go either way. The Broncho offense has begun to move.

KANSAS CITY.....20 MIAMI.....16
Chiefs put together the most impressive exhibition season of any NFL team. The game is in Kansas City, but the Dolphins are tough in any ball park.

LOS ANGELES.....20 NEW ORLEANS.....10
Both the Rams and Saints scored about the same number of points in the exhibition season. Saints gave up many more, and probably will here.

NEW YORK JETS.....23 BUFFALO.....14
The Bills might just be ready to start the season with an upset. However, we think Namath is just a bit overdue.

OAKLAND.....26 PITTSBURGH.....21
This could be the game of the day... the Raiders are strong, and the Steelers have come of age. Real interesting!

SAN FRANCISCO.....24 SAN DIEGO.....14
Brodie ready to lead the 49ers on a serious charge to the NFL championship... Hadl could slow down the initial charge.

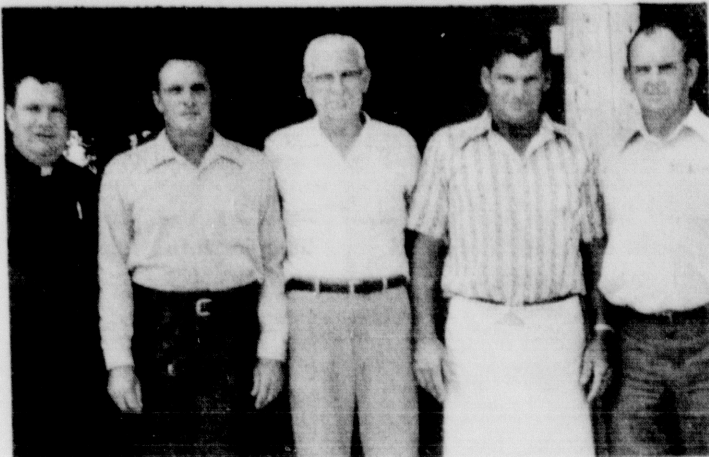

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

MINNESOTA.....20 WASHINGTON.....14
Tarkenton and the Vikings as a winner combination haven't proven anything yet, and the Skins are tough cookies.

Mono strikes Owls

What more could happen to a team that has injuries this week, played a tough game last week, and faces the State's No. 1 Class AAA team next week? Well, mononucleosis, for one thing.

The Owls are suddenly plagued with the highly infectious sickness that used to be called the "kissing disease".

Among the Owls who will not see action due to the disease is fullback Mark Buescher. Another suspected case of mononucleosis is first string quarterback James Prescott. While it has not been confirmed, Prescott was absent from school on Tuesday and Wednesday, and probably will not play Friday.

But sickness is not the whole story of doubtful starters at Barry Field. Keith Ligon, who suffered a painful bruise above his knee last Friday night on that blocked-punt touchdown, still has trouble starting off and will be at best a questionable starter this week.

Last Friday, the coaches say, play was erratic, with both high and low spots. The highest spots came in the defensive play of two players, Gregg Buescher and Juan Campos. Terry Mechler was also singled out for a good game against Floresville. The low spots were mostly missed assignments due to inexperience or "opening night jitters".

What about the Coyotes? "No doubt they're as good as their number 1 rating says they are," says James Bohls.

Of course, the Owls are number 6 in their own Class AA, also. With a break from the mono bug and some healed injuries, Hondo could just be the team that ambushes the Coyotes from their lefty perch.

CLEO DELEON with 646 and ARMANDO POMPA with 650 grabbed High Individual Series trophies in the Tuesday Night Mixed League at Bob's Bowling Lanes.

THAT'S PURSUIT

... Seven Owls move in for the kill on Tiger Jim Wright. Shown are Brian Finger (No. 12), No. 81 Terry Mechler, 33 Mark Buescher, 61 Mike Soathhoff, 71 Gary Zinsmeyer, 30 Juan Campos, and an unidentified Owl.

Owl opponents did well

You might say that the Coyotes of Uvalde got off to a flying start last Friday night. They whopped Pear-sall's Mavericks by a 51-0 margin, rolling up 492 yards offense, including 80 yards passing. The Coyotes never punted during the game. The attack was directed by Quarterback Lynn Leonard, who ran for one touchdown, kicked 5 extra points, and completed 9 of 14 passes with no interceptions.

The Coyotes will meet the Owls Friday night at Barry Field. Other 1972 foes of the Owls seemed to do well also in their opening games of the season (except for Pear-sall, whom the Owls also play).

Devine's Warhorses went up to New Braunfels and spoiled the opener for the Canyon Cougars by shutting them out 21-0. During that game, Randy Kendrick led all rushers with 106 yards gained. He also scored the first touchdown on a 20-yard pass from Quarterback Paul Jette, and the last score on a 2-yard run.

Medina Valley had an easy time of it too, beating Judson's Rockets 34-8 and holding them scoreless until the fourth quarter. Scoring for the Panthers were Glynn Tschirhart and Gilbert Espino with two touchdowns each, and David Blume with one. David DeCock ran for a two-point conversion and kicked two other extra points.

The Cotulla Cowboys also blanked their opponent, Laredo United, Friday night with a 6-0 shutout played at Laredo. United was hurt badly by fumbles as they lost two possible scoring drives that way, but the Cowboy defense was strong after the lone touchdown, which came on another recovered United fumble which Rene Benavides took on his own 18-yard line. An 80-yard scoring drive put up the score.

Joining the scoreless-game set also was Samuel Clemens High School, who beat the Del Valle Cardinals 22-0 at Del Valle. Defense was the highlight of that game, as Bill Salters intercepted a Del Valle pass and went in for the score. A punt return by Bobby Birdwell accounted for another touchdown, and a 1-yard plunge and a field goal added the other points. Del Valle was held to only 140 yards total in the game.

Carrizo Springs pounced on a George West fumble on the Longhorn 8-yard line, then scored to salvage a 6-6 tie. Neither team could score the point-after, and both scores came in the second quarter. Despite the lack of scoring, George West running back Jim Rosebrook, only a sophomore, turned in 137 yards on 14 carries.

The only Hondo foes who were defeated were St. Gerard's, Pear-sall and Dilley, who lost by a bare point to Jour-danton, 13-12, in a game played in Jour-danton. Willie Esqueda passed 35 yards to Rudy Garcia in the second quarter for a touchdown but the extra point try was no good. Esqueda scored later on a run, but again the extra point was no good and the Wolves went down to defeat.

St. Gerard's was defeated by East Central of San Antonio by a 19-6 margin.

Arizona State to defeat Houston

Our apologies for jumping the gun a bit last week with our forecast on the Houston-Arizona State game. We tried to pick a winner one week too soon! However, now that the Cougars have one game under their belts, they might be a little tougher. Arizona State is still the favorite, the spread is ten points.

The Georgia Bulldog comes alive this week against Baylor. The 8th-ranked Georgians will open their season with a 35-point win over the Fighting Bears.

All four of last year's Big Eight powers will see action Saturday. Nebraska, upset by U.C.L.A. last week, meets Texas A&M. The Aggies are underdogs by 27 points. Colorado goes after its second victory of the season, playing Cincinnati. The Buffaloes, expected to be the biggest threat to Nebraska's title hopes, will crush the Bearcats by 31 points.

Last year's Number Four power was Big Ten champion Michigan. After being upset in the Rose Bowl last January, the Wolverines are more than ready to resume winning. They will clip the Wildcats of Northwestern in a conference struggle by 12 points.

Before leaving the Big Ten, a game of more than casual interest will be the Illinois-Michigan State match-up. The Spartans are expected to be greatly improved over last year, and Oklahoma and Iowa State, ranked 3rd and 18th respectively in our final ratings last fall, also take on opposition outside the conference. The Sooners will whip Utah State by 30, while the Cyclones, the surprise team of the '71 season, are favored over Colorado State by the same margin, 30 points.

the Illini, after their "last half-undefeated season", are real dark-horses in the conference. Michigan State will win by eight.

Ninth-ranked L.S.U. will be much too tough for Pacific. The spread will be about 31 points.

In the East, Penn State will again be the power... if you believe everything you read! The fifth-rated Nittany Lions face a real toughie in real toughie country... they play 12th-ranked Tennessee in Knoxville. We'll go with Penn State by just one point, but we're doing this on a very nervous typewriter!

On the Pacific Coast, Southern Cal and U.C.L.A. will continue to flex their muscles. The Uclans will whip Pitt by 23 points... the Trojans will beat Oregon State by 26.
